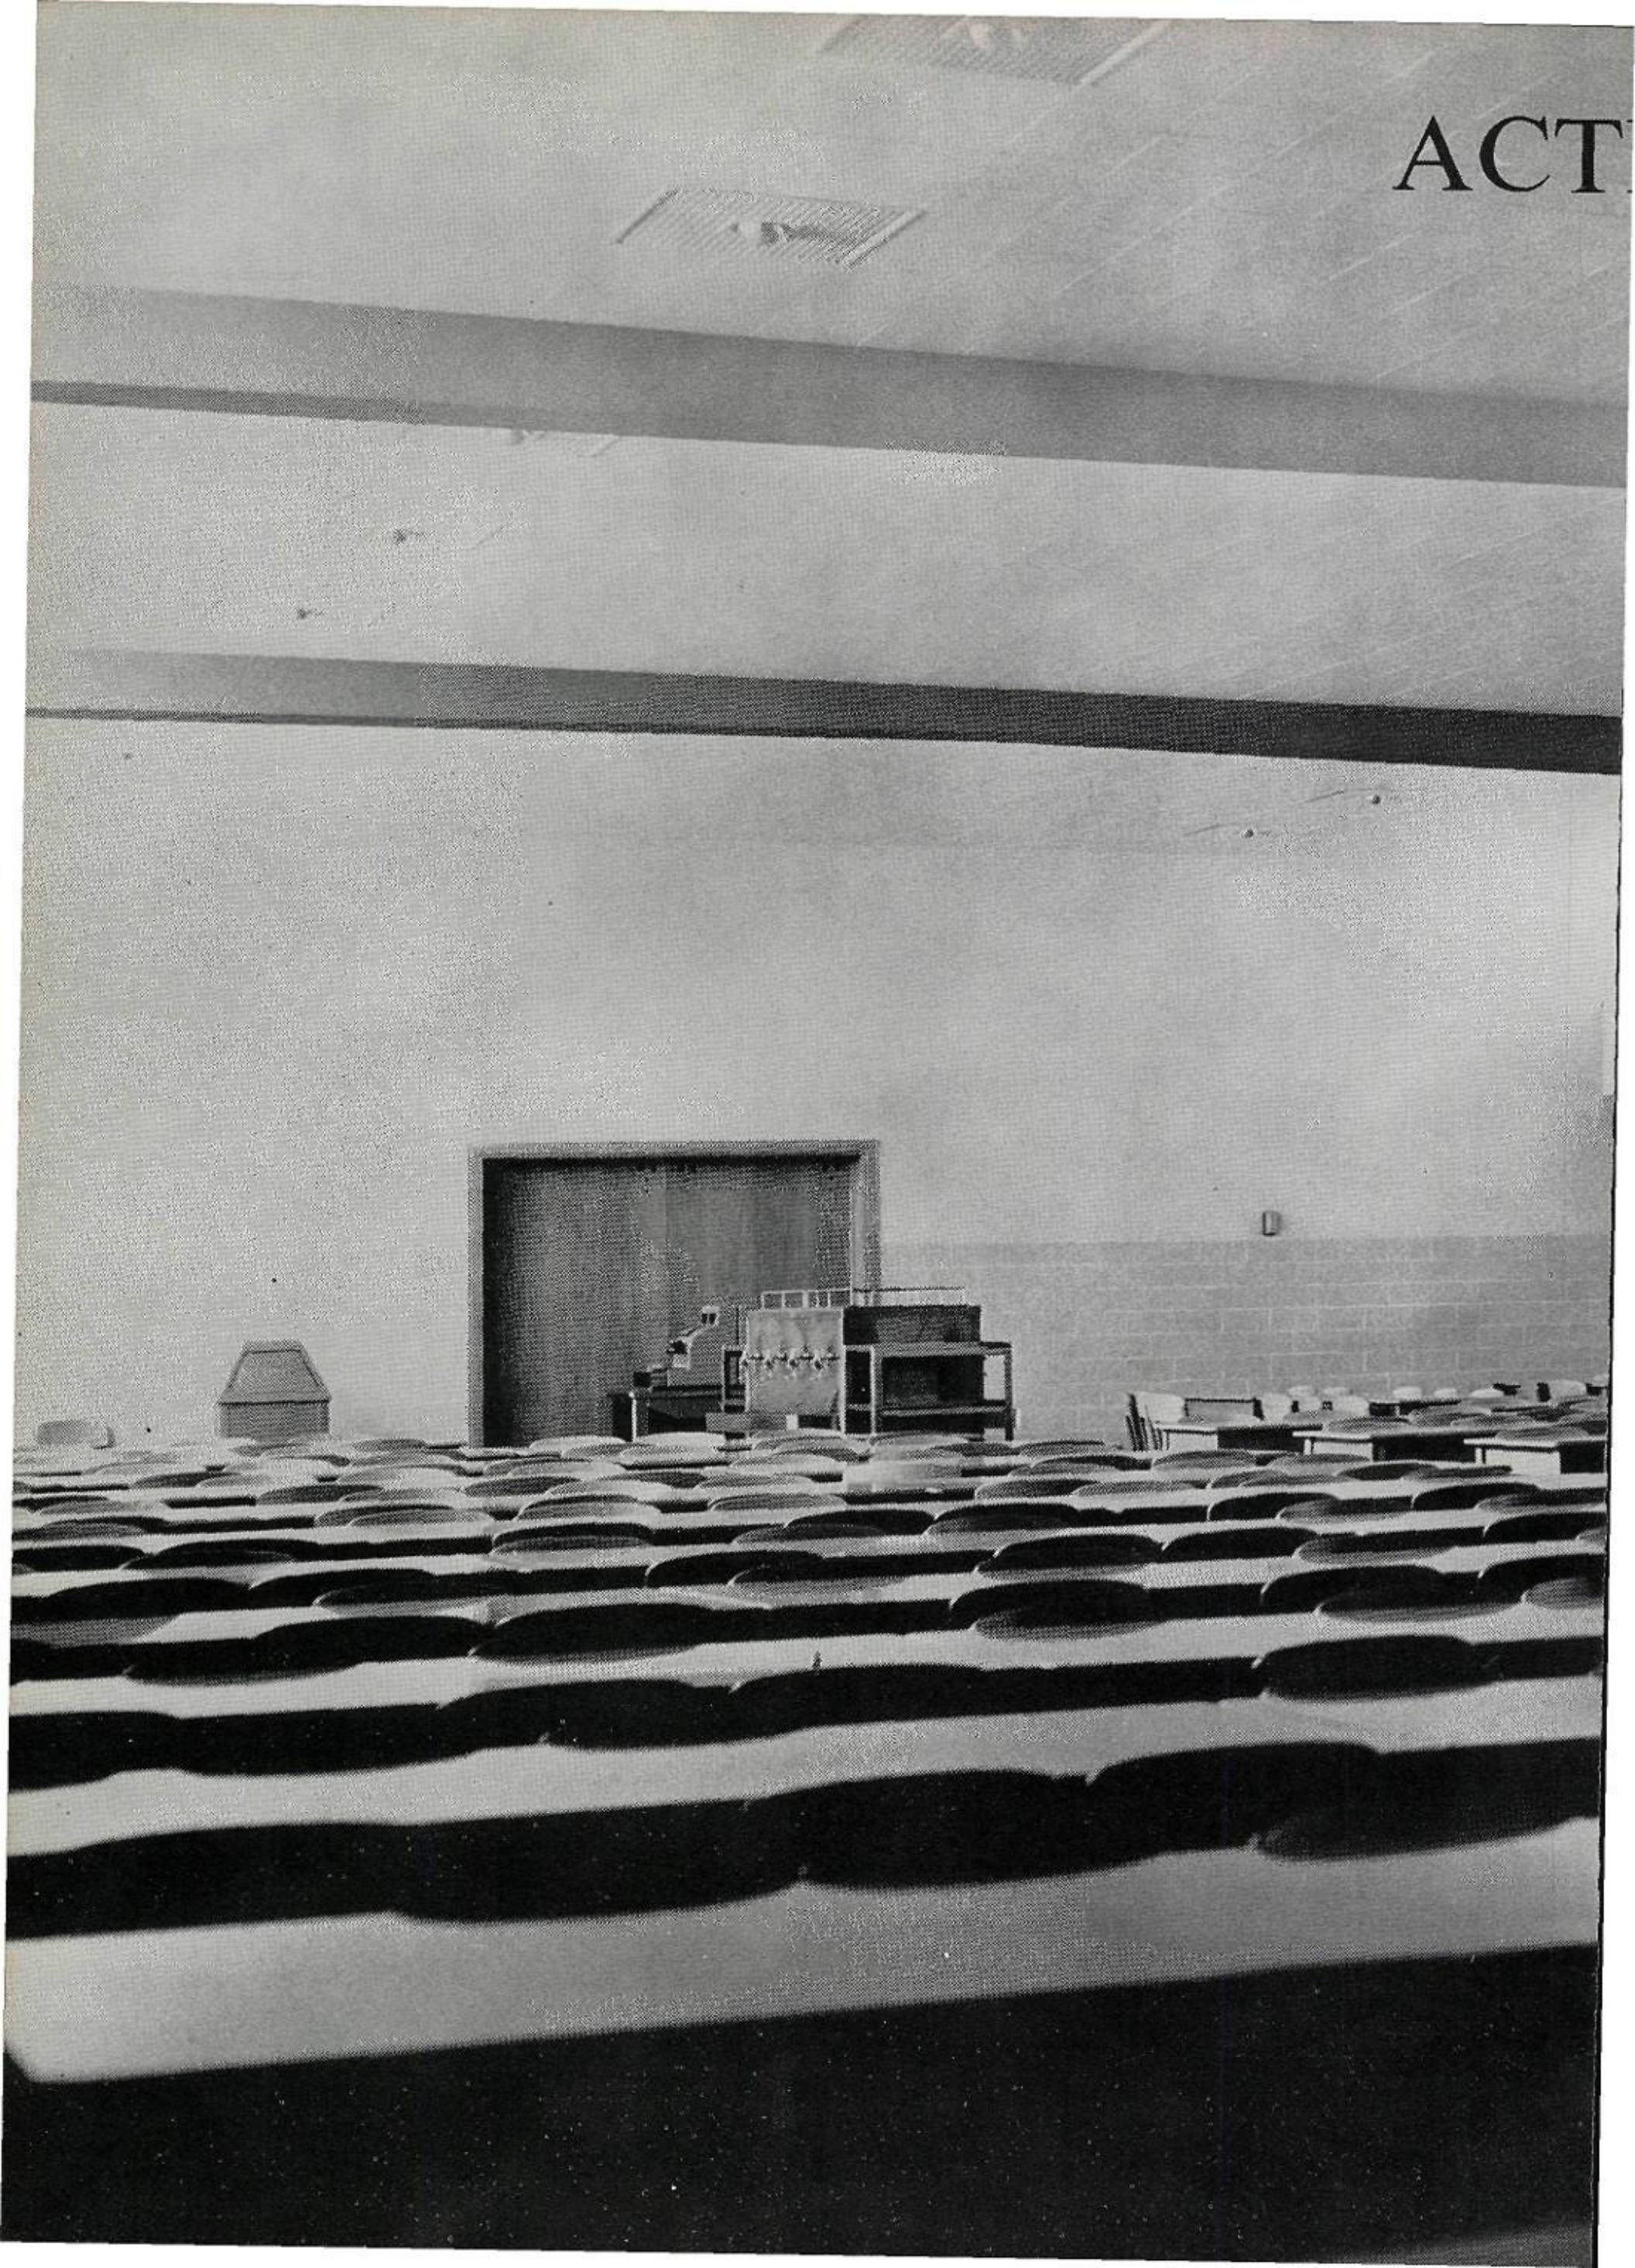
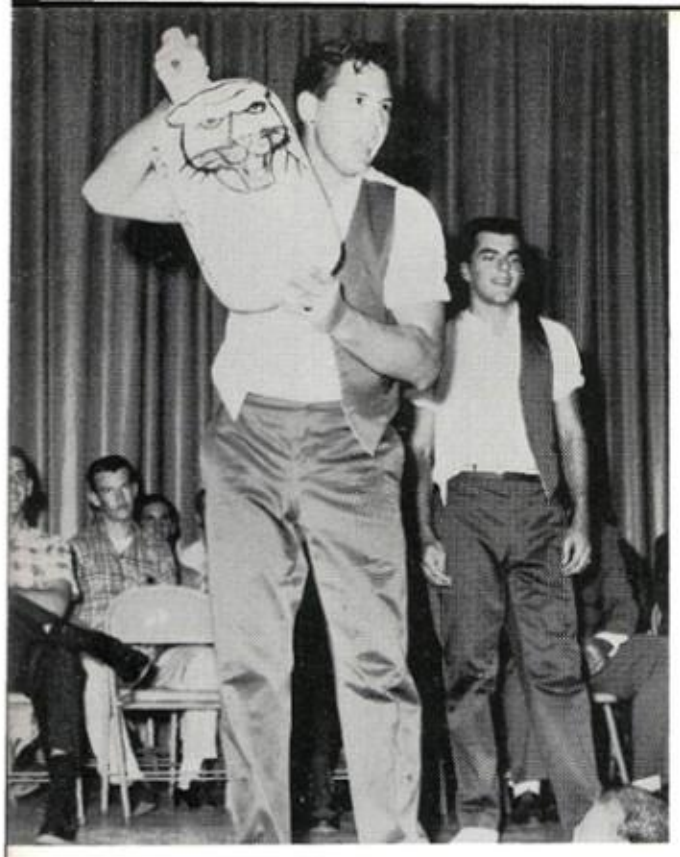
ACT



VITIES

PEP ASS
FULL
COU
SPI



Carroll Benson tells about the school spirit bottle at the first pep assembly.

Bob Cowsar

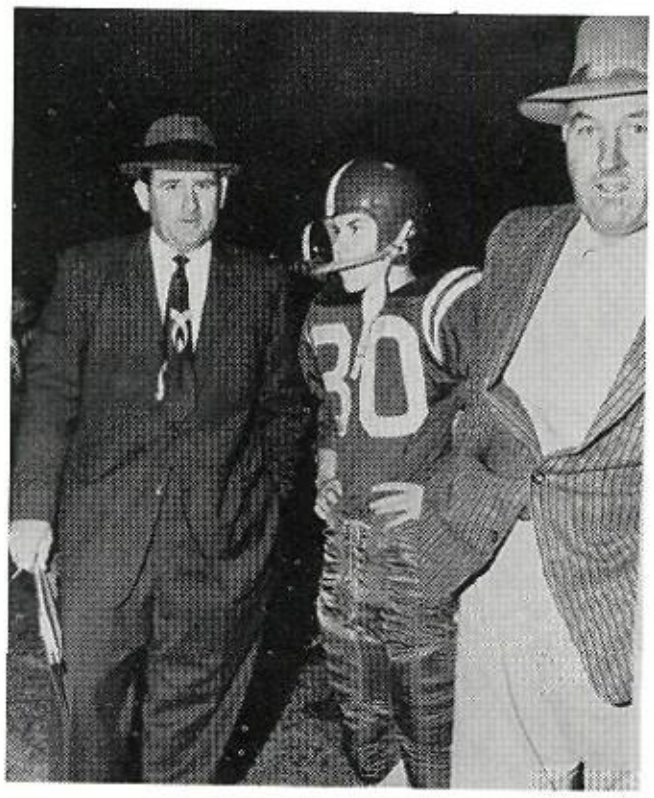
Coach Cowsar introduces the football team to the students. They are well worth yelling about.

Our cheerleaders added much to the spirit of our school.

Mr. Thompson introduces the candidates for football queen, who are Nancy Lagow, Becky Laird, and Ann Womack.

School spirit at Bryan Adams is very contagious among the students.

EMBLIES OF GAR RIT

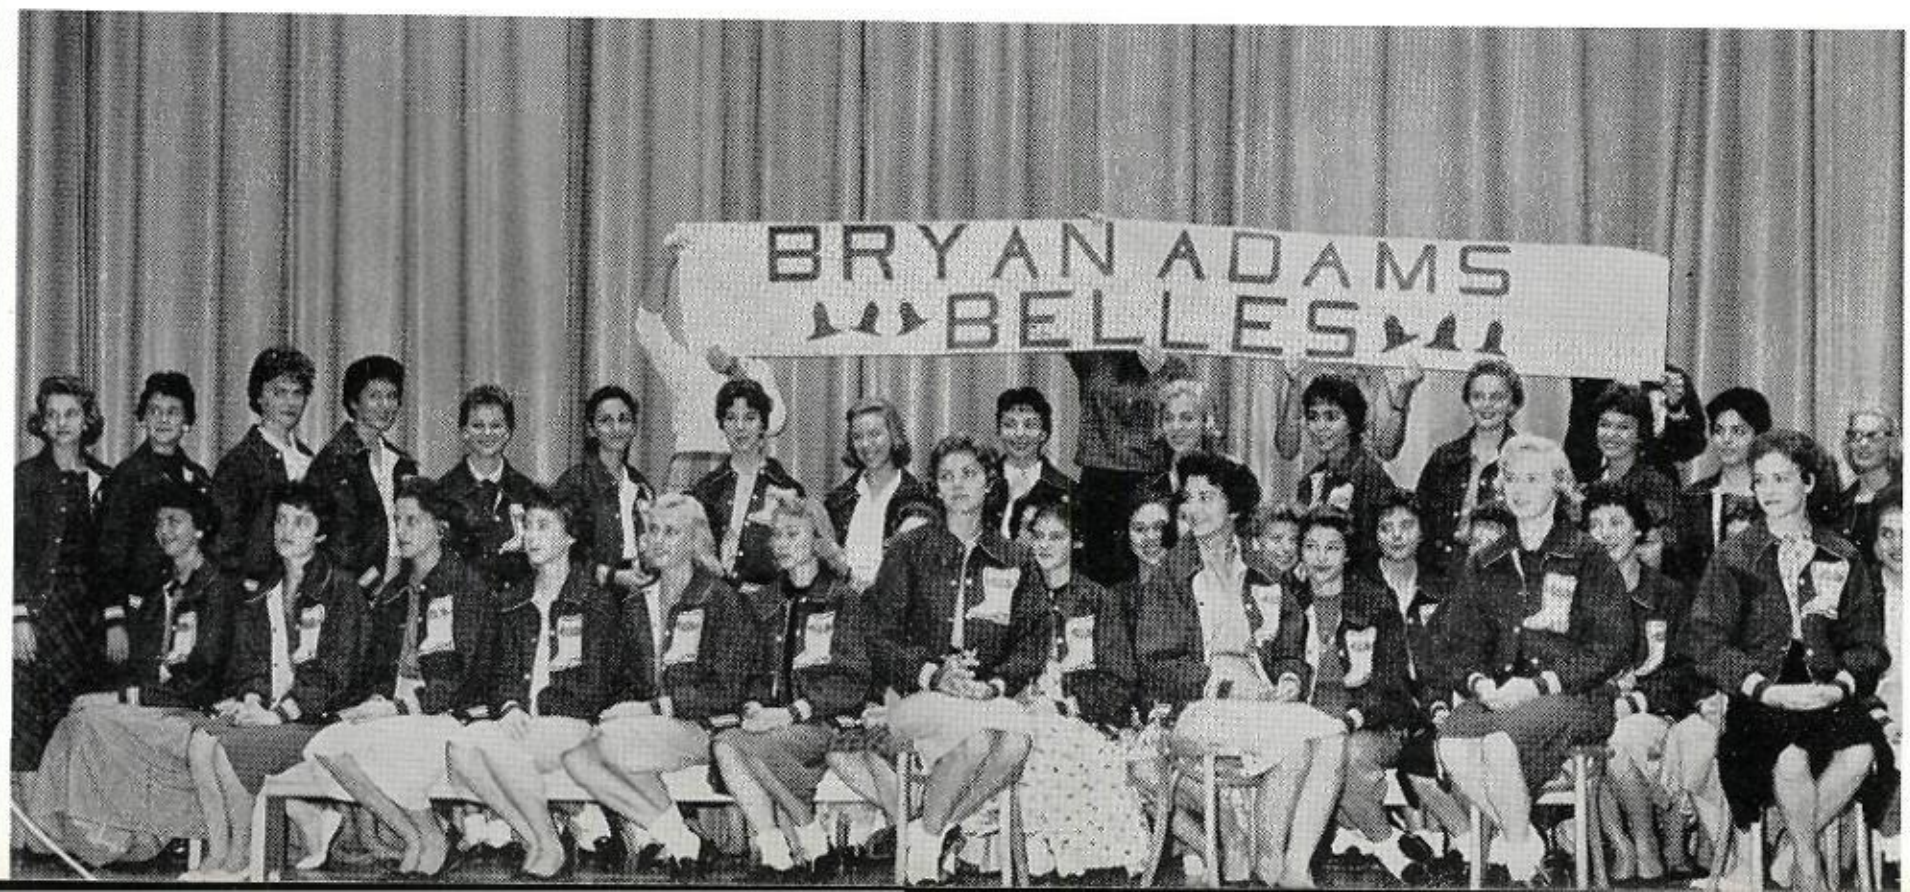


Mike Howard listens to last minute instructions from Coach Batchelor.

Mr. Allen gets that "Who, me?" look as Mr. Thompson accuses him of being a Rebel at the Thomas Jefferson pep assembly.

Bill Matatall and George Goff listen to a recording of Joe Soules at the Woodrow pep assembly.

The Bryan Adams Belles were formally presented for the first time this year.



SCRIBBLE PARTY

Hi y'all! These scribble parties are the greatest.

"And he asked me to sign his annual,"exclaims Judy True to Sharon Heady and Diana Hannel.

Sue Channell struggles to endorse her favorite picture at the scribble party.

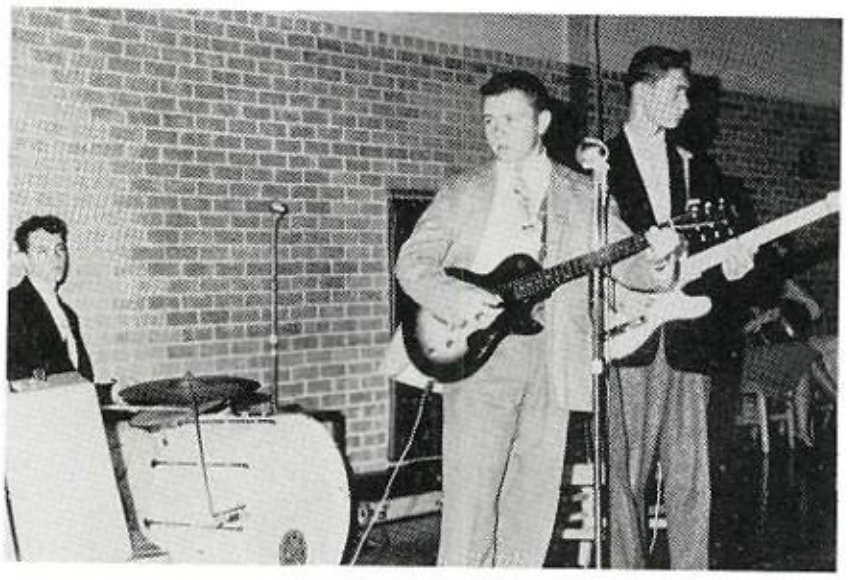
Susan Randall begs Sonja Woodham for her autograph.

Is this a gossip session or a scribble party?

Time out for the pause that refreshes.

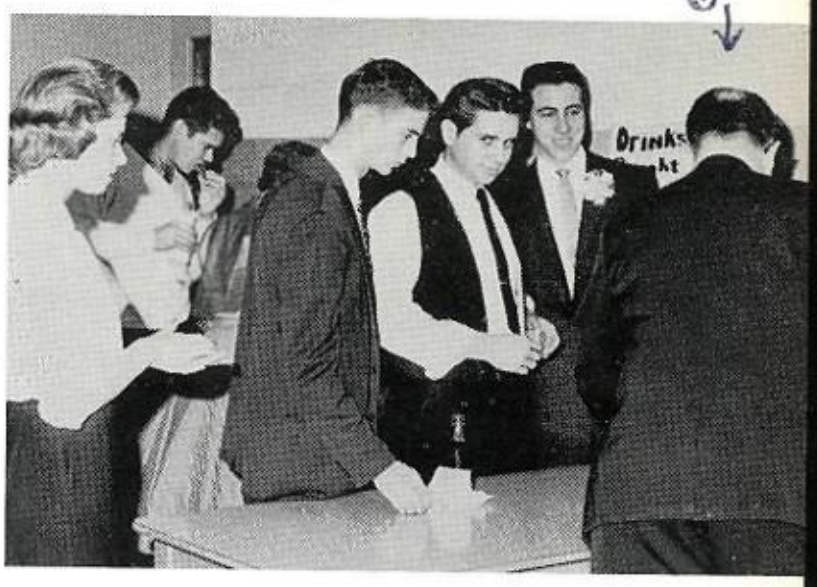
TWIRP DANCE

THE WOMAN IS REQUIRED TO PAY



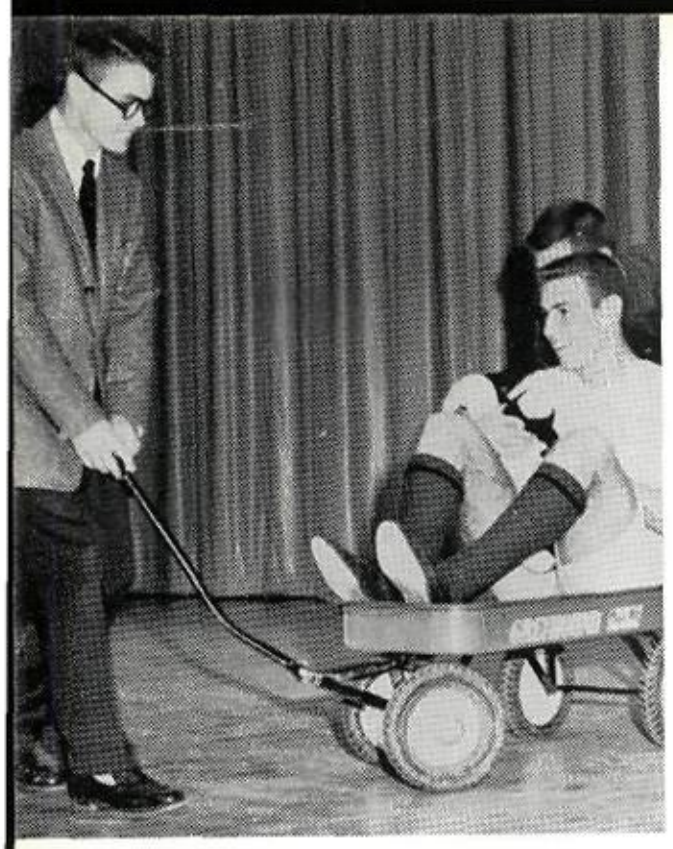
Richard Mac Fredries, Dennis Burdette, and Kent Wildman look as if they weren't invited by any girl.

Aw! I bet you say this to all the girls, says Joyce Banks.



But boys! The girls are supposed to buy the drinks as Nancy Lagow is doing.

CONQUI
ASSE



Before: The senior and junior class cater to the sophomore class.

After: The decline of the sophomore class!!!

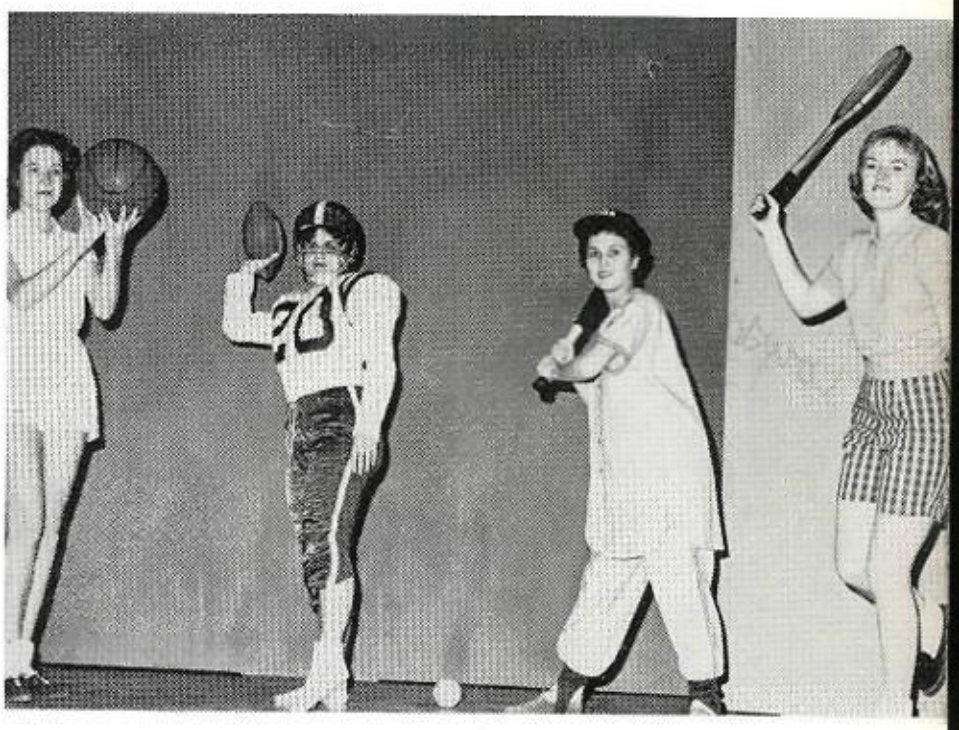
Military was never like this!!!

The band jazzes it up for the Conquistador assembly.

STADOR
MBLY

Larry Brown, Carroll Benson, Jerry Hawkins, Mike Howard, Bill Harlan, and Mike Rash in the disguise of the Bryan Adams Bellehops get ready for the kick line.

Kathy Hardin and Byron Pascal furnish a preview of the senior prom.



With Lynda Hall, Madelyn Miller, Virginia White, and Linda Lidberg, how can we lose?

Oh, come now, Marvin! It can't be that bad.

As the grand finale all the members of the el Conquistador assembly lined up and sang "Get Your Yearbook Today."

ADAMS DISPLAYS LARGE DRAMATIC TAL

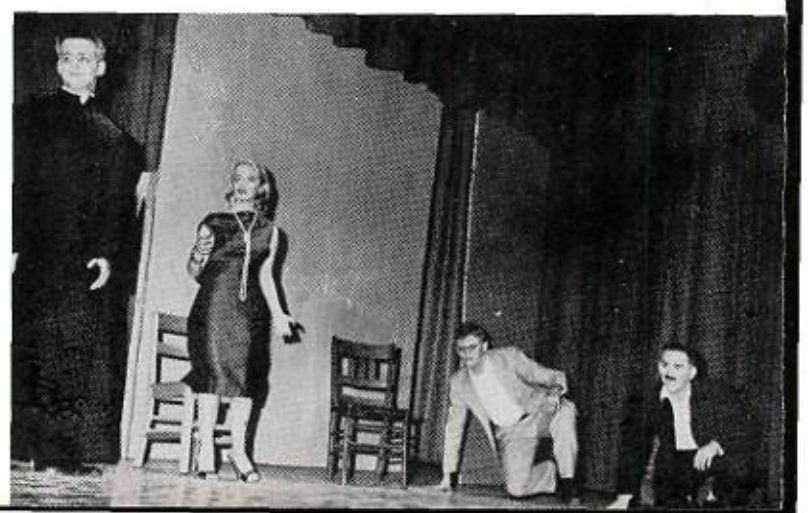
"Is that right?" asks Donnie Johnson to Lonnie Davis in "Wonder Hat."

A melodrama was presented to the student body in the form of a pep assembly. Alvin Bradshaw is the vile villian who is demanding rent and Jerry Norman as the hero saves the day.

"So what do you think about that?" says Jayne Walker to Carrol Benson and Susan Randall during a rehearsal.

"But that's not right," says Miss Arnold to Susan Randall as they rehearse for "Suppressed Desires."

The presentation of John Doe was enjoyed by the students at Adams.



AMOUNT OF
AND MUSICAL
ENT

Mike Lee soloes during the band concert.

The chorus fills the halls with music to set the mood for the Christmas holidays.

Members of the band accompany the chorus during the Christmas assembly.

AND OTHER FACULTY ACTIVITIES

The defiant Mr. Allen tells about those old "Rebels" a the T. J. pep assembly.

Miss Miles and Mrs. Hunter make pleasant "tea-talk" at the faculty tea.

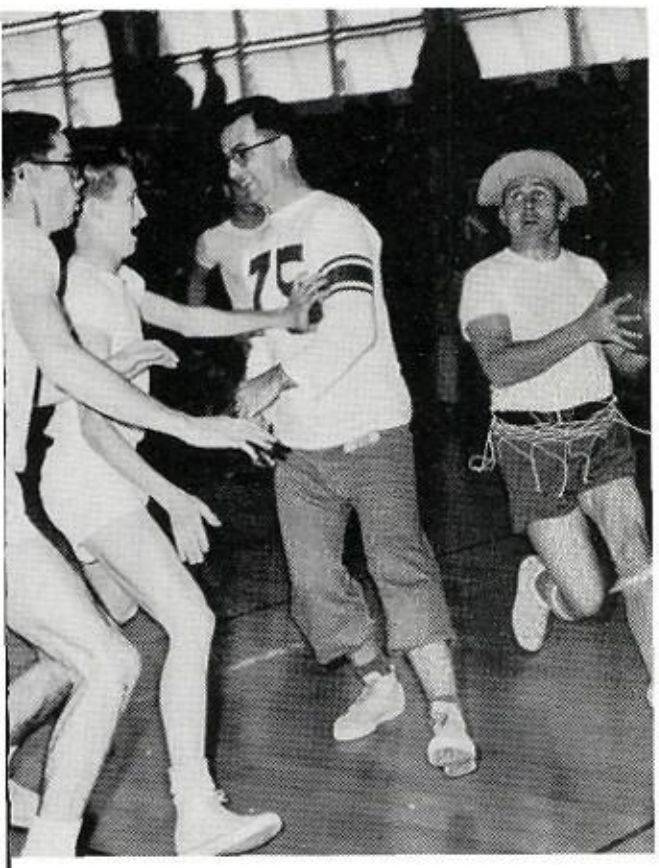
The "thinkers," are Coach Cowsar, Mr. Davis, and Mr. Howe.

"Myze-Mezy little pud, look at me, I'm a star," says Mrs. Whatley.

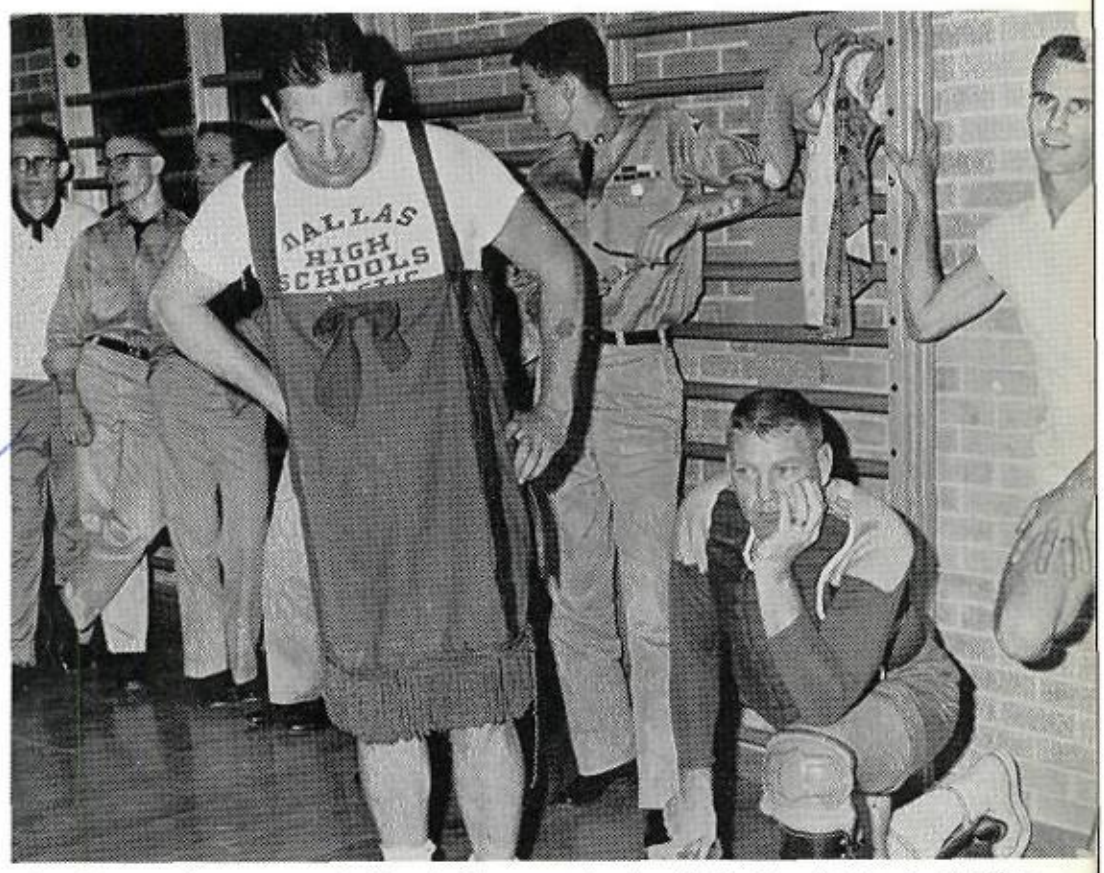
Mrs. Landtroop looks shocked at what Miss Sparks is telling Jim as he takes the picture.

Hey, look! A detention hall for teachers!

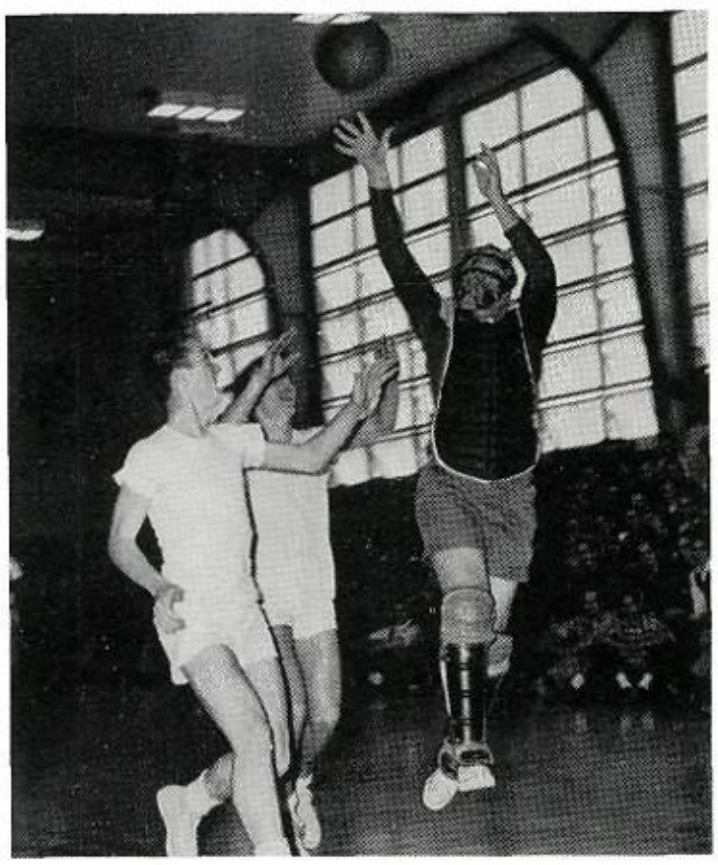
STUDENT-FACULTY BASKETBALL GAME



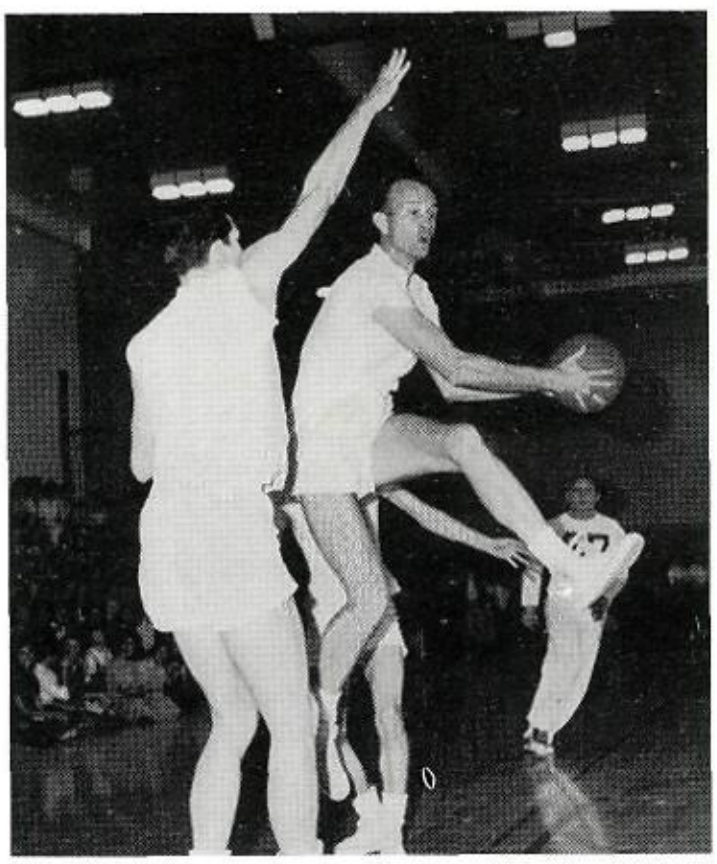
"Hold them off just another minute!" says Mr. Hill as he tries to find the basket.



The devastating gown of Coach Cowsar, the baseball rig of Coach Griffen, and the girl's gym suit of Mr. Davis all made the faculty-student basketball game more colorful.



This looks like a job for Superman.



"These girls' gym suits just don't give you any freedom," says Mr. Rowland.

It really was funny!

The "old Confederate," Mr. Allen, watches Mr. Rowland sink a free shot through the cords.

BRYAN ADAMS ENDS FIRST

Bryan Adams competed for the first time in District play. For the 1958-59 season, Bryan Adams played in District 6, Four "A."

Four district games were played: Thomas Jefferson, Hillcrest, Samuell, and Woodrow Wilson. The final run-down showed one win and three losses. The only victory was over Woodrow Wilson in the Cotton Bowl.

This was a year of firsts at Bryan Adams. It was the first year for the students to travel to out-of-town games. One was played in Tyler and one in Marshall. On the rain-soaked field, the Cougars tied Tyler, 0-0. The Marshall game ended in a victory for the green and white, 19-14.

SEASON IN DISTRICT PLAY

The other games played were not district games, as the out-of-town games were not. The Cougars defeated Adamson and were defeated by Tech and Sunset.

Season games ended with a benefit game for Joe Scules, against Woodrow Wilson. Once again the Cougars over the Wildcats, 42-12.

Co-Captains serving for the 1958-59 season were Paul Hargrave and Bill Matatall. Two trophies were awarded by the members of the team. The most valuable player award was presented to Bill Harlin. Mike Rash received the sportsmanship trophy.

BEFORE

As summer ends and the school has its rebirth, el Conquistador staff starts to work. Ads are solicited and the annual takes shape in the staff's minds. All work busily and co-operatively for one common goal, the best yearbook—el Conquistador 1959.

AFTER

Before the school year is over, however, all are at their temper's end. For those of a calmer sort sleep is in order. Others simply collapse from the strain, claw the walls, and even become violent to fellow staff members.

Charles,
I have really enjoyed knowing you this year. See you next year.
Patsy McClung

Best Wishes to a real nice sophomore
May luck follow you always. Tommy

Charles,
Look after Gibson next year and if you can see that he doesn't do too much apple polishing on the side of military rank. He's greedy, you know (!)
Best of luck in your own rank-seeking.
Tom Winston

Best of luck always to a real swell guy!
Dan Smith

The night has a thousand eyes

And the day but one;

Yet the light of the bright world dies

With the dying sun

MILITARY BALL
1959

Dottie Carter, the 1959 queen, being crowned by Sondra Kelly, the 1958 queen.

The officers and their dates enjoyed the grand march.

Virginia Tucker and Don McGown proceeding to greet the queen

Sondra Kelley surrounded by her court

The band played softly as the princesses, the queen, and their escorts danced.

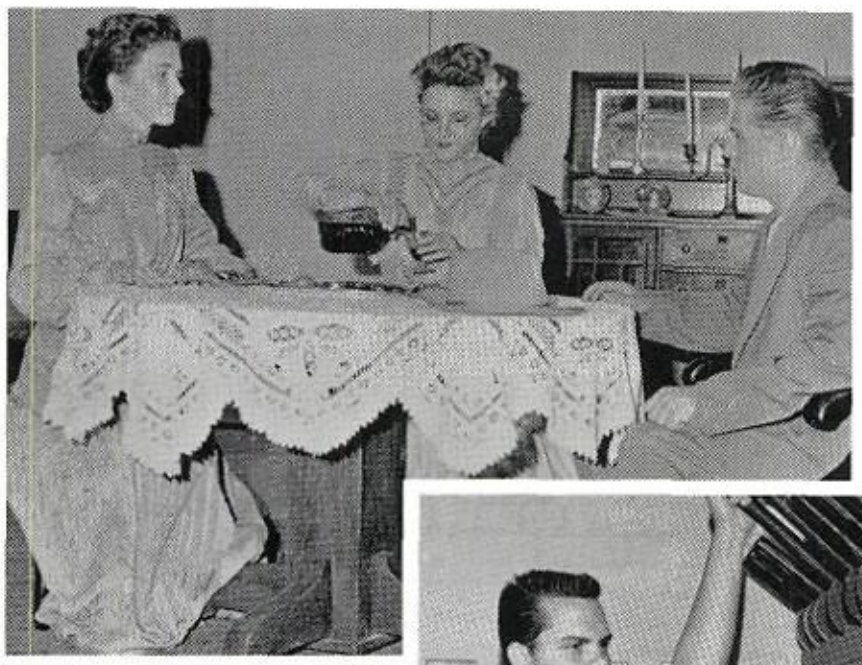
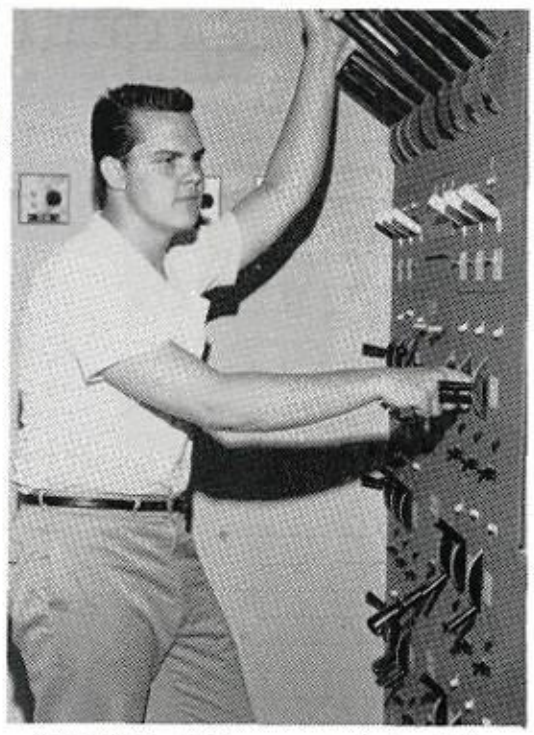
THE SENIOR PLAY

ARSENIC AND OLD LACE

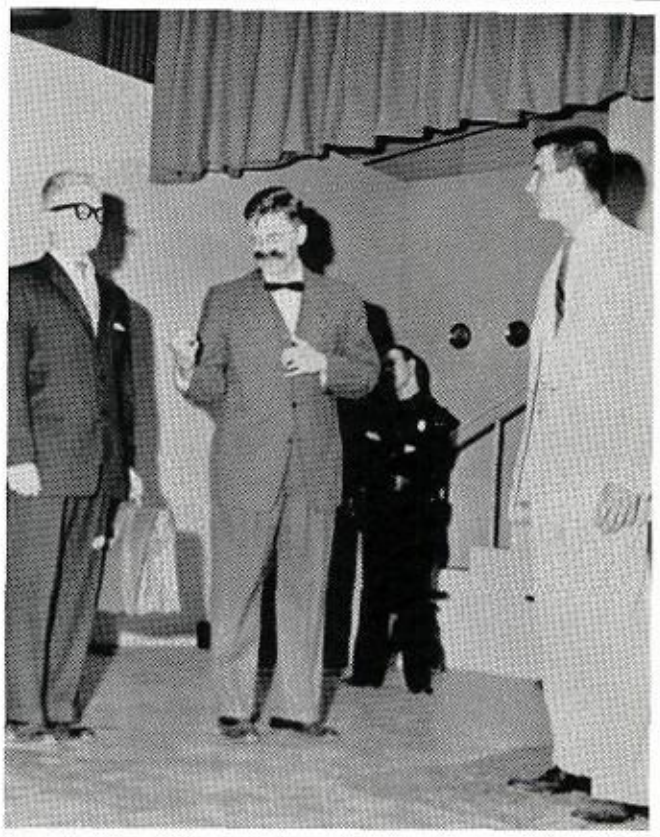


Two lovely ladies, Karla Knight and Ann Garrett, invite their latest victim, Don Hosek, to a glass of elderberry wine.

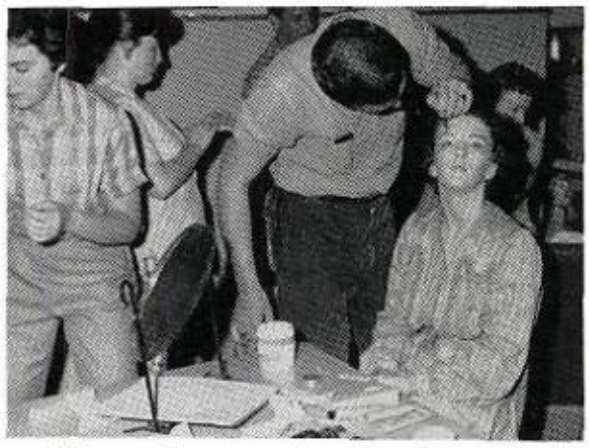


Pat McCutchin operated the lighting for "Arsenic and Old Lace."

Dr. Einstein, Mike Allen, and Jonathan Brewster, Bob Roark, feel that they have no need for Mortimer, Mike Holy.



President Roosevelt (Tom Winston) explains to Dr. Witherspoon (David Whitington) and Mortimer (Mike Holy) how sane he really is.



The make-up artist played an essential role.

The entire cast appears for curtain call (this time in dress rehearsal).
